

I think the FCC should be careful not to allow a monopoly within the media. Large corporations have the ability to overwhelm the smaller competition. If large corporations are allowed to continue to expand, it will be unfortunate for the media world. The smaller voices and opinions must be heard and should not be undercut by large powerful corporations who often times use predatory business tactics. PLEASE DO NOT SUPPORT THIS ACTION!